

Car Parking Fact Sheet

The Botanic Gardens and State Herbarium (South Australia) provides visitor car parking at the Adelaide, Mount Lofty and Wittunga Botanic Gardens and Botanic Park.

Parking at Adelaide and Mount Lofty Botanic Gardens and Botanic Park is ticketed. Parking at Wittunga Botanic Garden is free.

The Botanic Gardens and State Herbarium also provides parking spaces for the disabled and motorcycles, as well as bus drop-off and loading zones.

Parking is managed by the Board of the Botanic Gardens and State Herbarium. Within South Australia, parking is controlled by the combination of the Australian Road Rules 1999, the Road Traffic Act 1961 and the regulations made under that Act.

Funds collected from ticketed parking directly support the gardens' world-class botanical collections and education and conservation programs.

Ticketed parking

Credit card ticketing vending machines are available onsite at Adelaide and Mount Lofty Botanic Gardens.

Expiation Notices

Notices of parking infringements issued by the Botanic Gardens and State Herbarium are officially called Expiation Notices. State law regulates enforcement of expiation notices (see Expiation of Offences Act 1996.) The State Government sets the amounts payable on expiation notices under the Road Traffic Act 1961.

Payment of Expiation Notices If you have received an expiation notice from the Botanic Gardens and State Herbarium, payment can be made in person at the Goodman Building Reception, Adelaide Botanic Garden via cash, money order or credit card. Alternatively, payment can be made over the phone (08 8222 9311) using a credit card, or online via credit card using BPoint.

FAQs

Credit card ticketing machines are available onsite at Adelaide and Mount Lofty Botanic Gardens.

Who is responsible for paying an Expiation Notice?

The vehicle owner is responsible for payment of the notice on or before the due date. If you were not the driver of the vehicle at the time of expiation, you must provide a Statutory Declaration within 21 days of the notice.

Please include the driver's full name, address, birthdate and drivers licence number, to the Director, Botanic Gardens and State Herbarium, care of the Traffic Officer.

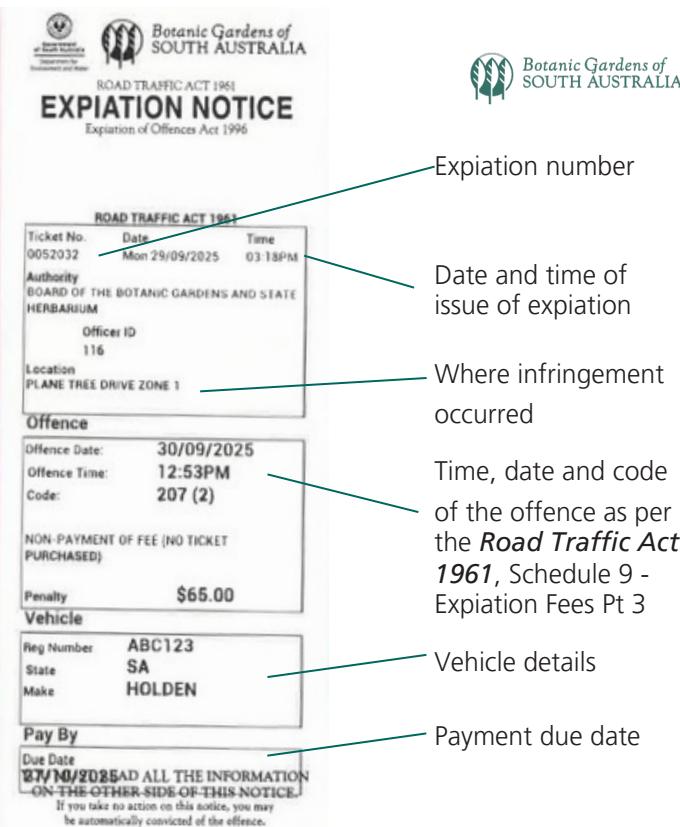

If the vehicle was sold prior to the offence date, you must forward a copy of disposal notice or a Statutory Declaration with the new owner(s) full name and address.

What are the expiation amounts? Expiation amounts are set by the State Government in Regulations made under the Road Traffic Act 1961, Schedule 9 – Expiation Fees – Part 3. The expiation fee is $65.

What extra costs could I incur? If payment is not received by the Botanic Gardens and State Herbarium by the due date, a reminder fee of $77 will apply.

A search fee of $10 will also be incurred for the Botanic Gardens of South Australia to obtain owner details from Transport SA. Registration searches from other states will incur higher fees.

Your Expiation Notice explained

If the matter is brought before the Magistrate's Court, court costs may also be incurred.

Can I be issued more than one notice for the same offence?

Once a vehicle has been expiated for an offence and remains parked for a further period, the vehicle may also be issued a 'Further Offence' Notice. A 'Further Offence' Notice may be issued for each hour the vehicle remains parked after the initial expiation notice.

How do I dispute my expiation notice?

If you dispute your expiation notice a request must be made in writing and addressed to:

Director, Botanic Gardens and State Herbarium
C/- Traffic Officer
Adelaide Botanic Garden
Goodman Building
Hackney Road
ADELAIDE SA 5000

or by email: botanicgardens@sa.gov.au

Expiation notices can only be waived at the discretion of the Director, Botanic Gardens and State Herbarium.

Expiation notices are only placed on hold once the Director has received the written request for a waiver. The Director's decision will be communicated to the applicant by letter or email.

Failure to pay an expiation notice by the due date will result in a statutory cost added to the expiation notice. If the expiation notice remains unpaid the matter will be referred to the Magistrate's Court.

YOUR CHOICES

You must, on or before the payment date, make one of the following choices in respect of the alleged offence

- Pay to the Botanic Gardens the total amount due. Payment may be made as per the options set out below. OR
- Enter into a payment arrangement with the Fines Enforcement and Recovery Officer on 1800 659 538 which may include payment of the amount of the fee(s) in instalments, an extension of time in which to pay or other options by agreement with the Fines Enforcement and Recovery Officer. A fee will apply to enter into an arrangement. OR
- Apply for a Review – if you think the offence was trifling, apply via email: botanicgardens@sa.gov.au (for special meaning of trifling see Section 4(4) Expiation of Offences Act 1996) OR
- If the offence is a parking or traffic offence and you were not driving at the time of the offence, complete a statutory declaration stating the name and address of the driver, or if you had by the time of the offence transferred ownership of the vehicle to the new owner and their address and post it to the Botanic Gardens. OR
- Dispute the allegation that you committed the offence and elect to be prosecuted. If you elect to be prosecuted for the offence, you may get a summons. The summons will set out when and where to attend court. Complete the appropriate form below and post or deliver it as set out below. However, you may first dispute the offence informally. Phone, write or attend as set out below.)

If no choice is made for an offence within the expiation period (from the date of issue to the payment date) the offence will apply. After that, the outstanding amount may be referred to the Fines Enforcement and Recovery Officer who may take enforcement action against you which may involve entering into a payment arrangement or property that you own (including motor vehicles and land) being seized and sold. An additional amount will become payable if enforcement action is taken.
