

Susan Marsden e: smarsden@bigpond.net.au

‘Old Gum Tree - A contentious heritage’

Hill, detail, including officials & Old Gum Tree (AGSA)

Painting on gumleaf showing 'Old Gum Tree', 1836 (SLSA)

Hill's first key (1857): Mr Gouger's tent (71), Old Gum Tree (72)

Samuel Sweet, Old gum tree, Glenelg, c 1872 (SLSA).

JD Stone, The old Gum Tree – Glenelg at the time of the Proclamation, 1836. 1901 (SLSA)

GOV^r HINDMARSH - MR GOUGER - MR POLLARD - GUM TREE - MR MR PADE (The only house with a glass window in the Settlements)
 MR JOHN BROWN The place where the Proclamation was read. - The place Track to Adelaide Fire place

The Union Jack was hoisted on the gum tree, but the day was so hot and sunny that the Governor sought the shade of the trees in front of Mr. Souger's tent to read the Document.

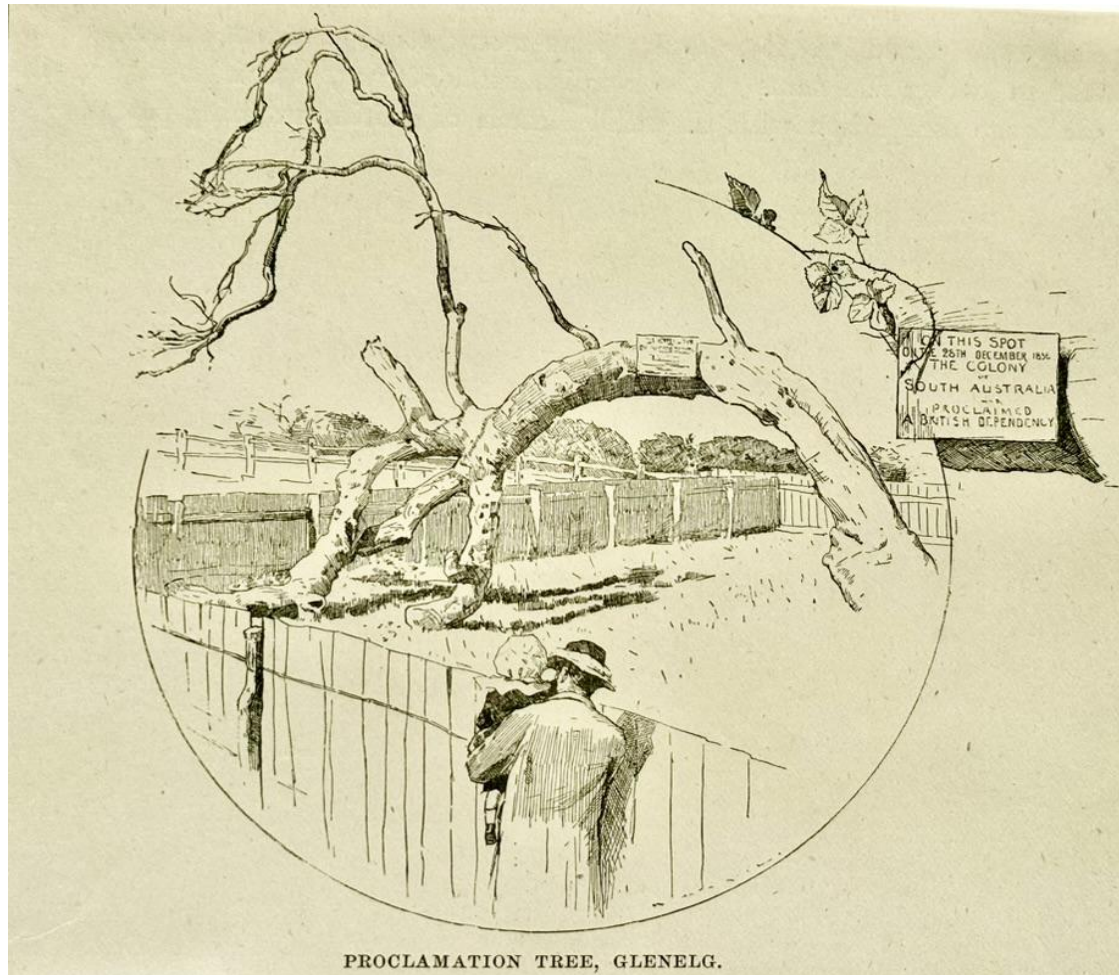

Piece of the old gum tree presented by Glenelg Council to to JA Hill (an 1836 witness).

Gouger's hut and tent at Glenelg,
JM Skipper, 1837. (SLSA)

William Hatherell, Proclamation Tree, Glenelg c 1887. (SM coll.)

HMS Buffalo Boatswain John Hill

OGT under iron canopy, Glenelg North. (SM, 2020)

Commemoration Day c1900 (SM coll.)

Prime Minister Julia Gillard at Proclamation ceremony 2012. (SM)

Susan Marsden

e: smarsden@bigpond.net.au

MR HILL'S HISTORY PAINTING
UNPACKING THE HISTORIES IN
CHARLES HILL'S THE PROCLAMATION OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA 1836
(Marsden Szwarcbord Foundation
& Wakefield Press)