

Loan Library Catalogue

Society

Developing Global Citizens (copy 1) [DVD]

2010, Education Services Australia

Assists young Australians to acquire the knowledge, skills and values necessary to become active global citizens. It integrates global perspectives into units of work commonly undertaken in schools and promotes active learning about complex global and environmental issues. Support materials include interactive multimedia resources, images and student activity sheets. There is also a film profiling global education through simulation games, role-plays, whole school activities and community interaction."

Includes primary and secondary units of work on water and sanitation, peace building, reconciliation, millennium development goals, responsible tourism, and food.

Dying to go to the toilet: The sanitation challenge [Book]

2008, Global Education Project Victoria

A resource for middle-secondary students that describes the problems of lack of sanitation, how it affects people and the environment, and outlines action that can be taken to improve this basic human right for millions of people. The resource uses a global perspective by basing activities on the learning emphases from the Global perspectives: A statement on global education for Australian schools (2002), Curriculum Corporation. Each section develops knowledge, skills and student activities based on global learning emphases. This resource may be used as a stand-alone unit of work or can be used to support different aspects of other studies such as population, development or sustainability.

Everyday justice: the global impact of our daily choices [Book]

2009, InterVarsity Press

Julie Clawson takes us on a tour of everyday life and shows how our ordinary lifestyle choices have big implications for justice around the world. She unpacks how we get our food and clothing and shows us the surprising costs of consumer waste. How we live can make a difference not only for our own health but also for the well-being of people across the globe. The more sustainable our lifestyle, the more just our world will be. Everyday justice is one way of loving God and loving our neighbours. So don't panic. We can live more ethically, through the little and big decisions we make everyday.

Fostering sustainable behaviour: an introduction to community-based social marketing (copy 1) [Book]

1999, New Society Publishers

This book addresses the urgent need for changes in public behavior to ensure a sustainable future amid increasing consumption patterns. It emphasises the role of social marketing in overcoming barriers to lasting behavior change. Serving as a key resource for community-based social marketing, it guides public education on sustainability practices.

Loan Library Catalogue

Society

Fostering sustainable behaviour: an introduction to community-based social marketing (third edition) (copy 2) [Book]

2011, New Society Publishers

Fostering Sustainable Behavior explores how community-based social marketing can transform good intentions into action for a sustainable future. This revised third edition includes new research, behavior change tools, and case studies. It offers strategies for targeting unsustainable behaviors, overcoming barriers, communicating effectively, and enhancing motivation - essential resources for promoting sustainable practices.

Future focused leaders: relate, innovate and invigorate for real educational change [Book]

2017, Corwin

How can school leaders prepare students and educators for what lies ahead? Where should leaders concentrate their efforts to properly equip staff, students, and community to thrive in an ever-changing digital age? Forward thinking and dedicated to sustainability, Future Focused Leaders will engage and empower leaders to work towards real educational change by relating, innovating, and invigorating. This book is designed to strengthen leaders' abilities to build learning relationships, use innovation for student success, and invigorate fellow educators to make a difference in the life of every child.

Future Justice: future focused leaders [Book]

2010, Future Leaders

Future Justice is concerned with what those living today leave behind for future generations. In the first part of the book, leading academics and thinkers explore the meaning of future justice and our responsibilities with respect to the environment, Indigenous Australians, refugees, science, human rights education, sexuality, economics, Southeast Asia, a Human Rights Charter, the United Nations and the Australian Constitution. The second part of the book features writing by young people on violent conflict, dementia, identity, death, love, celebrity procreation and climate change.

Geographies of human wellbeing [Book]

2013, Geography Teachers' Association of Victoria/AusAID

Geographies of Human Wellbeing explores the nature of wellbeing using indicators and online data analysed using a variety of ICT and mapping techniques. Produced by the GTAV as part of the Global Education Project, this resource is aligned to the Australian Curriculum: Geography – Year 10, Unit 2: Geographies of human wellbeing. Sections cover: what is human wellbeing?, empowering women and girls, population, poverty and human wellbeing, disease - HIV/AIDS, human wellbeing student inquiry.

Loan Library Catalogue

Society

Get Connected: Child Rights [Magazine]

2008, World Vision

Get Connected is an education resource designed for Australian upper primary and lower secondary classrooms. Get Connected is a 28 page colour workbook aimed to help students develop a better understanding of international issues and the values of global citizenship. The resource includes case studies, personal stories, graphs, maps, photographs, quizzes and a range of student-centred activities based around multiple intelligences and Bloom's taxonomy of thinking. These include individual, pair and small group work. Additional supporting resources for each edition are available from World Vision www.worldvision.com.au/learn/schoolresources

Child Rights: Explore the UN Declaration on the Rights of the Child and child rights issues around the world. Includes the Get Connected Child Rights DVD and teachers' notes. The DVD gives students an overview of the UN Convention on the Rights of the child and reveals how millions of children in India are denied their rights because of child labour.

Get Connected: Global Food Crisis [Magazine]

2009, World Vision

Get Connected is an education resource designed for Australian upper primary and lower secondary classrooms. Get connected is a 28 page colour workbook aimed to help students develop a better understanding of international issues and the values of global citizenship. The resource includes case studies, personal stories, graphs, maps, photographs, quizzes and a range of student-centred activities based around multiple intelligences and Bloom's taxonomy of thinking. These include individual, pair and small group work. Additional supporting resources for each edition are available from World Vision www.worldvision.com.au/learn/schoolresources

- 1: Water: Focus on water, with a 22 minute DVD looking at the importance of access to safe water. Explore case studies from Australia, Niger, Papua New Guinea and Laos.
2. Disasters: How do natural and human-made disasters differ? Explore the effects of the 2004 Indian Ocean tsunami and the ongoing armed conflict in Sri Lanka. Understand the key features of emergency relief, recovery, rehabilitation and disaster preparedness.
3. Child Rights: Explore the UN Declaration on the Rights of the Child and child rights issues around the world. Includes the Get Connected Child Rights DVD and teachers' notes. The DVD gives students an overview of the UN Convention on the Rights of the child and reveals how millions of children in India are denied their rights because of child labour.
4. Global Food Crisis: Explore food inequality around the world; understand the causes of the crisis and how it impacts children.

Loan Library Catalogue

Society

Get Connected: water in the world (copy 1) [Education Kit]

2013, World Vision

How important is water for human development?
What are the water issues facing our world?
How do communities respond to water issues?

Global Perspectives: A framework for global education in Australian schools (copy 1) [Book]

2010, Curriculum Corporation

Provides a revised structure for global education, recommendations about integrating global perspectives within and across learning areas, and advice for teachers and school leadership teams about how to implement the framework at a school level. Offering a concise, practical and philosophical guide to the aims and themes of global education as it has developed in Australia. The statement was the result of extensive planning and consultation, and synthesised the theory and existing practice of global education.

Lifting the Lid: A teaching resource for primary teachers for the International Year of Sanitation [Book]

2008, Global Education Centre

A teaching resource for primary teachers for the International Year of Sanitation introduces teachers to this important health issue and provides ideas and activities for classroom use. Toilets are a taboo subject, but we cannot and must not ignore the global crisis in sanitation - diarrhoeal diseases are the second biggest killer of children in the world. Lack of basic water and sanitation services keep people trapped in the poverty cycle. Health outcome through having both clean water and sanitation can have life-changing impacts for people.

Mirror [Book]

2010, Walker Books

Mirror is a charming two-in-one picture book that intertwines the lives of two boys from vastly different cultures - one in urban Sydney, Australia, and the other in Morocco. As a homemade Moroccan carpet travels to Sydney, the story highlights their shared experiences and connections, emphasising that we are all linked in some way.

Loan Library Catalogue

Society

Rethinking globalization: teaching for justice in an unjust world [Book]

2002, Rethinking Schools Press

Includes background readings, lesson plans, teaching articles, role plays and simulations, student handouts, interviews, poems, cartoons, annotated resource lists, and teaching ideas.

Rethinking mathematics: teaching social justice by the numbers [Book]

2006, Rethinking Schools

In this unique collection, more than 30 articles show how to weave social justice issues throughout the mathematics curriculum, as well as how to integrate mathematics in other curricular areas...This book offers hope and guidance for teachers to enliven and strengthen their math teaching. It will deepen students' understanding of society and help prepare them to be critical, active participants in a democracy.

The Earth Charter: values and principles for a peaceful, just and sustainable world [DVD]

2017, The Earth Charter Initiative in Australia

Features 'what is the Earth Charter?', Goals of the Earth Charter Initiative, values and principles for a sustainable future, Earth Charter International video, the Earth Charter in Australia, The Earth Charter and Education, 'A Quiet Revolution' a Soka Gokkai International documentary, Living the Earth Charter.

The Spirit Level: why equality is better for everyone [Book]

2010, Penguin

This groundbreaking book, based on years of research, provides hard evidence to show: how almost everything - from life expectancy to mental illness, violence to illiteracy - is affected not by how wealthy a society is, but how equal it is; that societies with a bigger gap between rich and poor are bad for everyone in them - including the well-off; how we can find positive solutions and move towards a happier, fairer future.

Loan Library Catalogue

Society

Thinking Globally: global perspectives in the early years classroom (copy 1) [Book]

2011, Global Education Project

Considers how to foster a global perspective in early years subjects, including English, mathematics and ICT. Its six chapters of cross-curricula activities explore the concepts of linking with others, personal identity, dimensions of change, social justice, rights, peace building and sustainable futures. The accompanying CD-ROM is packed with resources for teaching with a global perspective including digital content, photographs, graphic organisers and a video.