

Coffin Bay Sanctuary Zones

- The National Parks and Wildlife Service wish to remind people that it is illegal to fish or berley within any Sanctuary Zone.
- This also includes attempting to herd, chase or force fish out of the sanctuary zone.
- You can still fish for kingfish or other species in the channel, on the western side of Kellidie Bay and outside of any sanctuary zone.
- Wardens will be undertaking additional compliance patrols during kingfish season.
- It is the responsibility of the fisher to be aware of the zones and the rules that apply to marine park sanctuary zones
- An expiation of $315+Victim of Crime levy may apply.

No fishing in
Coffin Bay Sanctuary Zones

To help navigate the waters check out:

The SA Recreational Fishing Guide free App
 Recreational Fishing in SA Marine Parks brochure
www.marineparks.sa.gov.au

To report an offence:

Fish Watch 1800 065 522 (24hrs)
 National Parks Duty Ranger 8688 3223

Government of
South Australia

National Parks
and Wildlife Service
South Australia